SESSION 2017-18

Name of Activity: Excursion at Nagardhan Fort

Brief Report

OBJECTIVE: Visiting actual site of historical importance to emotionally realize history.

Nagardhan, ancient Nandivardhan, the first capital of the Vakatakas, is 34 kms northeast of Nagpur and about 5kms south of Ramtek, famous for its fortified hill temple.

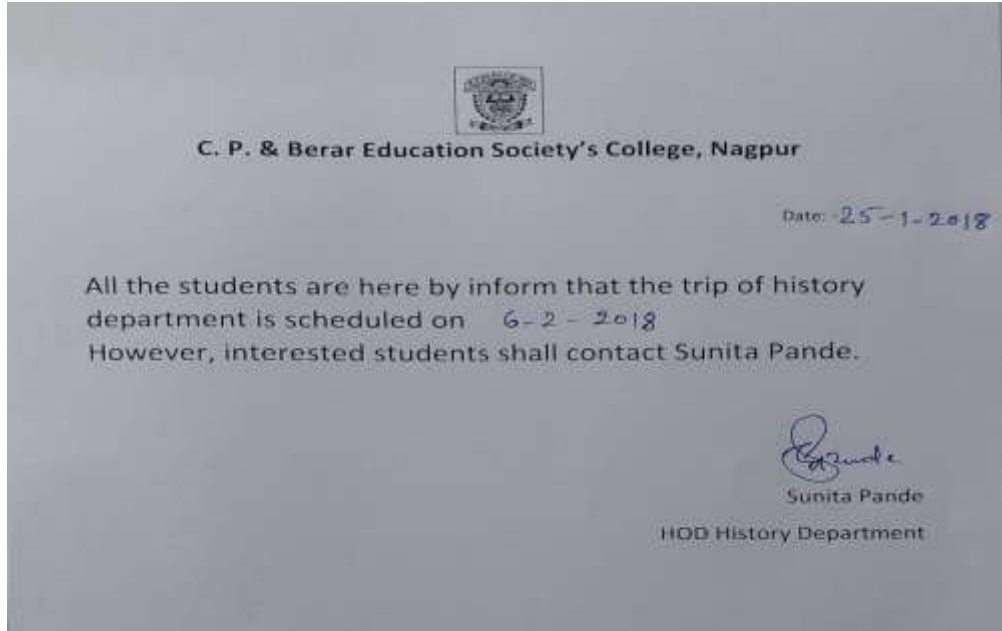

The present Nagardhan fort (land fort) was probably built by Raghuji Bhosale I around 1740 AD, must have served the purpose of guarding the eastern approaches to Nagpur. Square in shape, it has an outer rampart with bastions and had an inner wall surrounding the buildings. The main gate, still in good condition, is on the north-west side. In the fort there is a temple below the ground level and the idol is placed on a ledge of a well like structure.

Not far away from the present for there is a place where big sized bricks of ancient periods are often discovered. This is said to be a site of the capital-cum fort of the Vakatakas

Visited Kavikulaguru Kalidas Sanskrit University viewed their entire campus.

Also visited the Hindu Dhrma Sanskruti Mandir reference library.
