

7.1.9 Sensitization of Students and employees of the Institution to the constitution obligations: Value, Rights, Duties and responsibilities of citizen

Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

At CPBERAR Institute, we believe in giving holistic all round education to the students. And sensitizing students on our constitutional rights, values, duties and responsibilities. Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations is done through curriculum as well as through extra-curricular activities. Many of the subjects offered have topics which sensitize the students about the constitutional obligations. The University has introduced a optional paper on the Constitution of India at B.A. in political science across all faculty of humanities to create awareness and sensitizing the students and employees to constitution obligation. As a part of strengthening the democratic values. Also, all economics P.G. students take a course on Environment studies in their first year which gives them insight into environment acts, wildlife protection act, forest act, global environmental concerns etc. In addition to this many regular programs are conducted by Institute to educate women about their rights. Also seminars and workshops are conducted on days of national importance on various rights, duties and responsibilities of citizen. Seminars on topics like human Right to Information, Sexual Harassment, and Gender Equity are conducted periodically. Every year Republic Day is celebrated on 26th Jan by organizing activities highlighting the importance of Indian Constitution. Independence Day is also celebrated every year to highlight struggle of freedom and importance of Indian constitution.
