

C. P. & BERAR E. S. COLLEGE NAGPUR

Department of Political science

Session: 2023-24

Name of activity : International Human Rights Day.

Brief report

The universal declaration of Human rights, a seminal document adopted by the United Nations on the 10th of December 1948, marks a pivotal moment in human history, serving as a beacon of hope and aspiration for generations to come. This historic proclamation enshrines the inalienable rights and freedoms to which all individuals are entitled, regardless of race, nationality, or creed. Since its inception, the 10th of December has been universally recognized as International Human Rights Day.

In alignment with the global commemoration of International Human Rights Day, the students of Political Science at C.P. & Berar College resolved to partake in this momentous occasion by organizing a special program on the 10th of December 2023. Their initiative aimed not only to pay homage to the principles enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights but also to foster a deeper understanding of these rights and their implications in contemporary society. Spearheading the event, Dr. Ninave, a distinguished scholar and key note speaker, delivered a poignant address that underscored the importance of human rights awareness and empowerment. Through his enlightening discourse, he not only elucidated the fundamental tenets of human rights but also exhorted the students to become advocates for social justice and equity in their respective spheres of influence. His impassioned advocacy served as a catalyst for introspection and action, inspiring the audience to embrace their role as custodians of human rights and agents of positive change in the world.
