Report of the Painting Workshop organized by the Department of Home Economics at C.P. & Berar College:

Painting Workshop: Skill Development Programme

Organized by: Department of Home Economics, C.P. & Berar College

In Collaboration with: Pidilite Favicryl

Dates: April 1st - 5th, 2024

Venue: Department of Home Economics, C.P. & Berar College

Trainer: Mrs. Trupti Bhoyar

42 girl students were participated.

Day-wise Report:

Day 1: April 1st, 2024 - Varli Art Painting

The Painting Workshop, organized by the Home Economics Department, began on April 1st, 2024. Dr. Joshi, the Principal, inaugurated the workshop. Dr. Dongarwar, the IQAC coordinator, was also present. Mrs. Trupti Bhoyar, the esteemed trainer, introduced the workshop and its objectives. She highlighted the importance of traditional Indian art forms. The focus of the first day was on Varli Art, a tribal art from Maharashtra. Mrs. Bhoyar demonstrated the art using simple shapes and lines. Participants were provided with materials like paper, brushes, and colors. They practiced creating basic Varli motifs under the guidance of the trainer.

Day 2 & 3 April 2nd & 3rd 2024 - Mandala Art Painting & Tie & Dye

The second day focused on Mandala Art, a form of meditative art with intricate geometric patterns. Mrs. Bhoyar explained the significance of Mandalas and their spiritual and cultural importance. She demonstrated various techniques for creating Mandalas, including using compasses, stencils, and freehand drawing.

Participants experimented with different colors and patterns to create their own unique Mandalas. Mrs. Bhoyar explained the various techniques of tie and dye, such as knotting, folding, and pleating fabric to create unique patterns. Participants experimented with different techniques and colors to create colorful and artistic fabric designs.

Day 4: April 4th , 2024 - Maheshwari Painting

- The third day introduced participants to Maheshwari Painting, a traditional art form from Madhya Pradesh, known for its vibrant colors and intricate floral designs.
- Mrs. Bhoyar demonstrated the characteristic style of Maheshwari painting, emphasizing the use of bold colors and fine brushwork.
- Participants practiced creating floral motifs and borders using the techniques demonstrated by the trainer.

Day 5: April 5th, 2024 - Exhibition and Conclusion

The valedictory function of the Painting Workshop was held in the Home Economics Department. The highlight of the event was an exhibition showcasing the remarkable artwork created by the students throughout the week. This included stunning Varli paintings, mesmerizing Mandalas, vibrant Maheshwari paintings, and creative tie-dye creations. The exhibition was open to all students and faculty members of the college, who were amazed by the talent displayed. Respected Dr. Joshi, the Principal, congratulated all the students for their incredible work and wished them the very best in their future endeavors. Mrs. Bhoyar, the esteemed trainer, provided individual feedback and encouragement to each participant. The workshop concluded with the distribution of certificates of participation to all the talented artists. The workshop introductory speech by prof. Ratnaparkhi (HoD home economics Department), vote of thanks by Miss Kalyani (students of 3rd sem) and functions compairing by Miss Ashwini (students of 3rd sem)

Feedback form report

The Painting Workshop, organized by the Home Economics Department, was a resounding success. A feedback form was distributed to all participants at the conclusion of the workshop. Participants learned various techniques in Varli Art, Mandala Art, Maheshwari Painting, and Tie and Dye. Mrs. Trupti Bhoyar, the esteemed trainer, effectively guided students through each art form, fostering a positive and engaging learning environment. 80% Participants appreciated the diverse content and the opportunity to explore their creativity. Positive feedback highlighted the clarity of instructions, the quality of materials, and the overall organization of the workshop. 100% Participants found the content interesting and informative. Suggestions for improvement included more time for individual practice and exploring a wider range of materials. Participants consistently praised Mrs. Trupti Bhoyar's teaching methods, her patience, and her ability to make the learning experience enjoyable. The workshop successfully achieved its objectives, providing students with valuable artistic skills and a memorable learning experience. The Department of Home Economics will carefully consider the suggestions for improvement to enhance future workshops.
