All the dignitaries were present on the occasion. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Milind Barhate was felicitated on the occasion. Speaking on the occasion, he said, "During my tenure as Principal of C. P. & Berar College, I realised that the workload and responsibilities are as a Vice-Chancellor many times more than what they were when I was working as Principal Of The College. The new National Education Policy and many challenges in line with it have to be worked out in a planned manner. From here on, the new educational approach of the government will be to provide autonomy to many senior colleges and actively respond to the concept of group university. It requires financial resources and manpower. However, in view of the current situation, there is a lack of both these aspects, but while accepting many new challenges, it is necessary for the educational institutions and all the teachers to play an inclusive role, create a positive environment, temperament, adjust to different ideologies. If you work hard, you will definitely get success." he expressed his opinion.

Also the chief guest. Vice-Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Dudhe. Mentioned the kind and hardworking personality of Dr. Milind Barhate, the Professor-Principal and the newly appointed Vice-Chancellor reviewed the successful journey achieved through his benevolent role towards all, social commitment, creation of organizational environment. Similarly, ignoring anger, he made a statement indicating acceptance, acceptance of restraint. In the presidential address, Shri Ashokraoji Bansode, while tracing the evolution of the institution so far, conveyed his presidential sentiments, wishing that the reputation of the institution will continue to grow through the upcoming innovative educational initiatives. The function began with a Maharashtrageeth and vidyapith geeth. The programme was presided over by the principal of the college, Dr Arvind Joshi. Head of the Department of Sanskrit Dr. Vibha Kshirsagar. Did Anchoing Principal Dr. Jitendra Mahajan did vote of thanks. On this occasion, the Executive Officer of CP and Berar Educational Institutions, Shri. Head of the Department of Humanities, Nagpur University.
