Name of Activity: Soft Skills Development Workshop

BRIEF REPORT

Soft skills are non-technical skills that describe how you work and interact with others. Unlike hard skills, they're not necessarily something you'll learn in a course, like data analytic or programming skills. Instead, they're something you often build through experience.

Soft skills include interpersonal (people) skills, communication skills, listening skills, time management, and empathy, among others. They are among the top skills employers seek in the candidates they hire, because soft skills are important for just about every job.

Understanding the importance of learning and acquiring Soft skills, that every passing out student should have it for fetching a job, workshop on soft skills was organised by Commerce Department of C.P. & Berar College.

The resource person for the program was Dr. Ashish Linge, Head of department, MBA, Dr. Jitendra Mahajan, Vice-Principal , C.P & Berar, College & Professor S. D. Bhave, SoftSkills Trainer.

Dr. Linge explained soft skills and its importance to students. He shared some tips with students that they should stay positive, have goals in life, identify potential, stay away from negativity and start a day with positivity. He said this automatically inculcates the good values leading to good acts that are very important to gain soft skills.

Prof. S. D Bhave, renowned Soft skills trainer, told students that they should learn English language, master the skill of answering to the point, participate in various competitions, keep on learning new skills etc. While doing so one should stay polite and confident. Once you have mastered in the soft skills it acts as promoting agent for your success. Prof Mrunmayee Kanetkar Assist him in practical session.

Dr. Jitendra Mahajan, praised Speakers for partnering in soft skills program. He appealed students to get benefited from such sessions apply the learn set of skills in practical life.
