Objective –To make students aware about IPR& Patent process

Introduction

In today's rapidly evolving knowledge-driven economy, Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) play a crucial role in safeguarding creativity, innovation, and research. Recognizing the growing importance of IPR, C. P. & Berar College, Nagpur, in collaboration with MahilaMahavidyalaya, Amravati, successfully organized a National Seminar on Intellectual Property Rights in an online format.

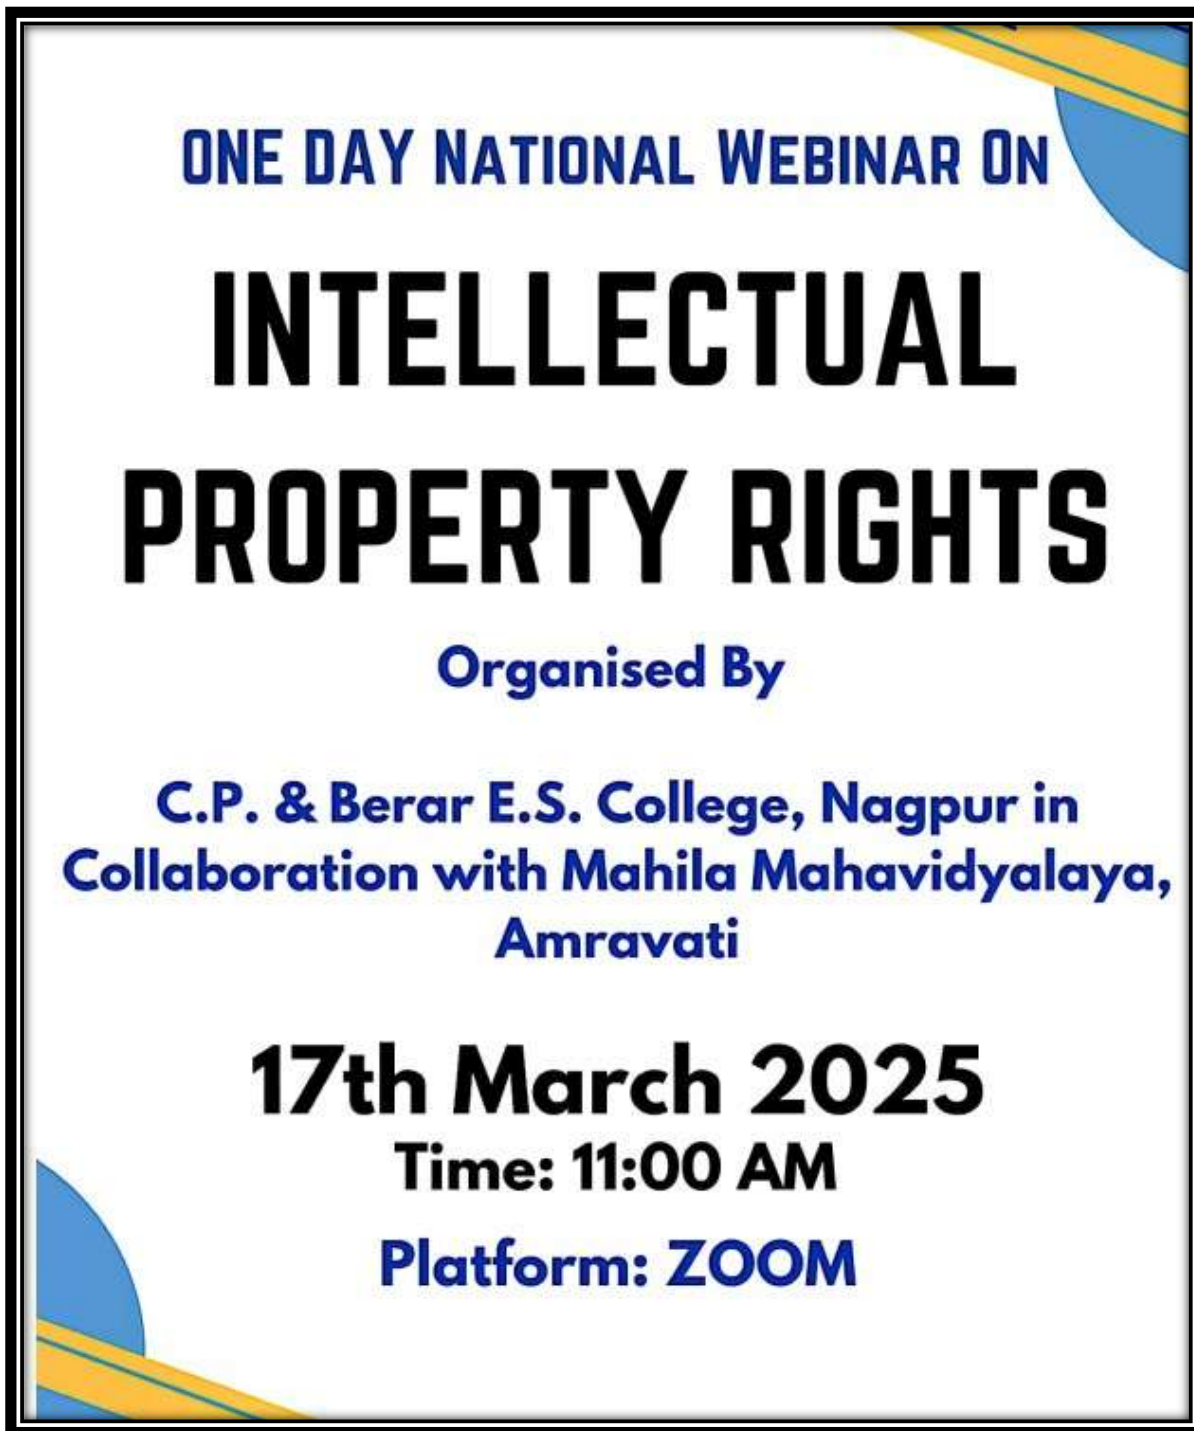

The seminar aimed to educate students, researchers, and academicians about the fundamental concepts of IPR, its significance in protecting intellectual assets, and its relevance in various fields, including science, literature, business, and the arts. It featured Dr.MangalaHirwade, Head of the Department of Library Science at RashtrosantTukadojiMaharaj Nagpur University, as the keynote speaker. She provided an insightful and easy-to-understand overview of IPR, covering key aspects such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, industrial designs, and geographical indications.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members, reflecting a keen interest in understanding the legal and ethical aspects of intellectual property. Esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. Arvind Joshi (Principal, C. P. & Berar College), AvinashMoharil (Principal, MahilaMahavidyalaya), and Dr.MedhaKanetkar (IPR Cell), graced the occasion, emphasizing the institutional commitment to promoting awareness and education in this field.

With a well-structured agenda and expert guidance, the seminar successfully imparted valuable knowledge and provided a platform for discussions on the importance of IPR in research, innovation, and commerce. The event concluded with Principal AvinashMoharil's closing remarks, followed by a vote of thanks from organizer Shalini Pandey, acknowledging the contributions of all participants and dignitaries. This seminar marked a significant step toward encouraging intellectual property awareness, inspiring students and researchers to explore the benefits of protecting their creative and innovative works.

ABSTRACT OF WEBINAR

1. Seminar Organization & Collaboration

The online national seminar was jointly organized by C. P. & Berar College, Nagpur, and MahilaMahavidyalaya, Amravati. This collaboration between two reputed institutions reflects their commitment to spreading awareness about Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) among students and faculty members.

By hosting the seminar in an online format, the organizers ensured accessibility to a wider audience, allowing students and academicians from different regions to participate.

2. Keynote Speaker: Dr. MangalaHirwade

Dr. MangalaHirwade, Head of the Department of Library Science at RashtasantTukadojiMaharaj Nagpur University, was the keynote speaker. She is an expert in the field and provided a comprehensive and easy-to-understand explanation of Intellectual Property Rights.

She covered several essential topics:

Definition & Importance of IPR – She explained that IPR safeguards original works such as inventions, literature, artistic creations, symbols, and business names.

Major Components of IPR – The discussion covered patents, copyrights, trademarks, industrial designs, and geographical indications.

Research Protection – Dr. Hirwade emphasized the significance of IPR in protecting academic and scientific research, ensuring that innovators and researchers receive due credit for their work.

Courses & Training on IPR – She informed attendees about the Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Intellectual Property Management (RGNIIPM), Nagpur, where specialized IPR courses are available for those who wish to gain in-depth knowledge in this field.

Her ability to simplify a complex subject into understandable terms helped the audience grasp the importance of IPR in various domains.

3. Participation & Response

The seminar witnessed an overwhelming response from students, scholars, and faculty members. The engagement from the participants indicated a keen interest in understanding and applying IPR principles in their respective fields.

Such a strong response underscores the growing importance of Intellectual Property Rights in the modern knowledge economy, where innovation and creativity play crucial roles.

4. Presence of Dignitaries

Several esteemed academicians and experts attended the seminar, adding credibility and value to the event.

Dr. Arvind Joshi, Principal of C. P. & Berar College, and Avinash Moharil, Principal of Mahila Mahavidyalaya, showed their support for the initiative.

Dr. Medha Kanetkar from the IPR Cell played an essential role in discussing the institutional efforts to promote awareness and implementation of Intellectual Property Rights.

Their presence emphasized the institutional commitment to spreading knowledge about IPR and supporting students and researchers in protecting their intellectual creations.

5. Concluding Remarks & Vote of Thanks

Principal Avinash Moharil delivered the concluding remarks, highlighting the importance of Intellectual Property Rights in both academia and the business world. He encouraged students and researchers to stay informed about IPR policies to protect their innovative works.

Shalini Pandey, the seminar organizer, expressed gratitude towards the keynote speaker, dignitaries, participants, and attendees, acknowledging their contribution to making the seminar a success.

The structured conclusion and appreciation reflected the well-organized execution of the event.

6. Overall Success of the Seminar

The national seminar on Intellectual Property Rights was highly successful, achieving its objective of spreading awareness about the significance of protecting intellectual creations. The event:

- Attracted a large audience and engaged students effectively.
- Featured an expert speaker who simplified complex concepts.
- Encouraged academic institutions to promote IPR education.
- Provided valuable information on courses available for further learning.

This seminar serves as a stepping stone for future programs related to Intellectual Property Rights, innovation, and research protection.
